Awsome. When I click on the link, it shows that I have already responded. So glad you are on this.

I have XRP via my IRA account with Kingdom Trust. I was locked out of trading because of the SEC suit and Kraken's response to it. This investment is on absolute hold right now.

Consider the News from today I just signed the contract info , it is a bit off the top to claim that xrp in my wallet can be determined to be a security

Your trap worked John 🙌 now how can these criminals be charged. Hinman and Clayton are crooks and everybody knows it now. I want to see them squirm over this and the XRP community deserves some payback.

Right now everyone interested is signing up for possible inclusion, how the class is certified and or divided and what level of participation each international xrp holder has is too complicated to tweet etc so we are in the this is the total size and interest
